

Guide to Attached Map:

Areas shaded in pink are considered suitable for housing development.

Areas shaded in black are suggested employment land (industrial and retail)

The area shaded in orange is the suggested area where a country park could be located.